THE KING'S CUP COMES TO AMERICA

In the June 2nd issue of Horse and Hound Col. H. M. Llewellyn, who with Foxhunter made one of the greatest jumping combinations of modern times, wrote: "The United States has an exceptionally fine rider in William Steinkraus whose smooth riding reminds one of the d'Inzeos of Italy. Steinkraus on Night Owl could easily win the individual Olympic Gold Medal." Because this prediction did not come true and because our team placed fifth at Stockholm many people in this country jumped to the conclusion that our team was a dismal failure. Not so the informed body of horsemen abroad, however. From Stockholm the team went on to Germany where Coach de Nemethy's training program received the flattery of close attention on the part of top riders from other countries who came to look on during the early morning sessions. At the great Aachen show, which included the F.E.I. World's Championship Jumping event, Steinkraus and Wiley were in the finals of several events and Frank Chapot gathered two second places in classes of over 80 entrants on Matador and Belair, being beaten by only fractions of a second.

Another horseman who did not lose faith in our team was Col. "Mike" Ansell, one of the world's authorities on jumping courses, who has built the International Horse Show at London's White City Stadium into the foremost show in Britain. Not so long ago he wrote The Chronicle: "I was much impressed with your jumping team in Stockholm and they have improved one hundred percent. I anticipate they will do well in London at our Show, July 23 to 28, as they are now becoming a really good team."

The London Times of July 26th more than justified Col. Ansell's good opinion. Under the headlines "TROPHY WON BY U. S. RIDER—Unfaulted in King George V Cup" its Equestrian Correspondent wrote: "King's Cup evening is always the great moment of the International Horse Show. The Queen arrived early at the White City last night and she had a warm welcome from the crowd packing the stands. The United States gained a resounding victory. Mr. W. Steinkraus not only won the cup on Mr. Magid's First Boy, but also jumped Night Owl into equal first place (as a sporting gesture he declared to win with First Boy rather than with his own horse). We had to wait a long time for the first clear round, that of First Boy. He was immediately followed by Nizefella and Mr. W.

White who have been our most dependable defenders on so many stricken fields, but with two fences down they were out of the hunt. Our last hope was Mr. P. Robeson on Miss Paget's Scorchin, an Olympic choice, but the first element of the first combination was too much and all was over. Mr. Steinkraus was presented with this coveted award by the Queen.

"In the chief jumping event of the afternoon for the Country Life and Riding Cup, eight riders qualified for a second barrage with time to count. Mr. Chapot of the United States on Matador jumped a clear round in 55 seconds; J. Lanni on Mr. Massarella's Distinguished Gent also jumped clear, but in 61 and 4/5 seconds and so took second place. Miss Pat Smythe set a big pace, but a refusal by Prince Hal, which was more like a demolition, counted three faults."

If evidence is needed to justify the full support of the U. S. Equestrian Team, here it is. And if we will give it that support, so that riders, horses and coach can be kept together, Amercia will continue to have a team in which it can take the greatest pride.

Forward Seat

Dear Sir:

Mr. W. S. Felton's recent article very much interested me, but I have to disagree with him about the forward seat only being used in England within the last thirty years. I include a photograph (too faint for reproduction) in which you will see I used the forward seat, riding many winners, at the Bath Show on a 14.2 pony. I made a water jump from take-off to landing of 33 ft., the record then being 33 ft. 7 in., held by a 16.1 horse called Omega, all around 1903. I rode Essex B at the last meeting held at Elkwood Park and came 1st carrying 172 lbs. over brush 3 1/2 miles, time 7 min. 4 sec. My weight was then only 138 lbs. so I had to carry 34 lbs. dead weight. The well known jockey James Christy came 2nd, carrying 162 lbs. and Batwell with 157 lbs. came 3rd.

Over timber the same horse won the Cedarhurst Cup (L. I.) In these and other races I always used the forward seat as in my day the foremost riders did, such as T. Mason, A. Newry, G. Wilson and E. Piggot. The exception was in the Grand National when drops were too big and one had to sit back and deep in the saddle. My articles published away back in Polo and Rider and Driver explained the reason for the forward seat. As every horseman knows the galloping and jumping power comes from behind and of course

Brookmeade Stables' Bred and Owned Gandharva Wins The Champlain Stakes

Little is known of the origin and ancient history of advertising and publicity. Possibly a couple of Piltown fast-talkers started the promotion racket when they discovered a deceased mammoth in a cave and got word around that it might be viewed for two clams a look, with the privilege of chewing on the carcass for an extra clam.

The art of letting people know where there is something for sale has grown fabulously in the last 50 years.

Phineas T. Barnum showed the world how to promote a circus feature or a figure of the opera. He used large type, bands and a spot of overstatement.

He would have been puzzled by the subtle nature of modern publicizing. Today, the light, dry properties of a brewed beverage are emphasized. The smoothness of distilled liquids is headlined. To my knowledge, no purveyor of happy water ever has advertised, "Three belts of Pure Old Prop Wash, and you'll forget the payment due the finance company," despite the obvious truth of the contention.

In all probability, racetracks are the must subtle of all advertisers. I always had the notion that people go to the races to see the noble Thoroughbred and perhaps place a bet. With this in mind I suggest an advertising campaign addressed directly to people who need money, like defalcating bank cashiers.

My proposed copy ran something like this: "Get honest at Jamaica. A judicious investment will square your account. Go today and quit dropping things every time somebody says 'bank examiner'."

Perhaps this is a bit too Barnum-like for the courses of today. Now, clients are attracted to racetracks by swans, murals, water-skiers and escalators.

Recognizing the appeal for these extra-curricular attractions, horse park publicists have strained their brains for unusual stunts that cause impressionable human beings to become overwhelmed by the urge to go a-racing, or, once at the track, to wish to return again and again and again.

One pulled recently by Pimlico will, in all probability cause the annual Special at the Maryland track to be a sell-out. At least, it made a stadiumful of sports fans Turf conscious.

There was a game of football (also out of season in Maryland) in the Baltimore Stadium on August 6. It was the intra-squad contest of the Baltimore Colts, and this professional club has a very good fullback by the name of Alan Ameche. Because he runs like a bull, Mr. Ameche is affectionately known as "The Horse."

Well, when a racetrack publicity man happens upon something like that he comes out running like the equines in firehouses of old. An idea was born.

Thus, Mr. Ameche received an "invitation" to the Pimlico Special. To keep in the mood of the course, Mr. Ameche galloped across the gridiron with a small lad in jockey silks upon his broad back.

This thing could be carried much further. With "The Horse" in line, the Mayor (mare) should be invited. Then, there's a fellow named Dave Philly who plays baseball in Chicago, and Mr. J. J. Colt, who owns Thoroughbred horses.

Pimlico has just scratched the surface. After the affair at Baltimore Memorial Stadium, a group of great minds banded together and formed the Academy of Horse Park Publicity Arts and Sciences.

If plans work out, there will be an award on the order of the movies' "Oscar", and the TV "Emmy" at the end of each year.

It will be known, appropriately I think, as the "Fanny". Specimen trophies are being grown now. The one to be used for the prize will be selected after husking time.

The winner of three ears will gain permanent possession of the solid Golden Bantam.

Jamaica

The 68th running of Gravesend's Brooklyn Handicap was held at Jamaica on August 4. The race was run at Belmont Park in 1913 and at Aqueduct from 1914 to 1955. The distance has changed, too. At the beginning, the race was at a mile and one-quarter, then it was reduced to 1 1/8 miles, then upped again to ten furlongs. This year's renewal was at a mile and three-sixteenths.

And it was a thriller.

As Handicapper Frank E. Kilroe had assigned Nashua 132 pounds (going above and beyond the call of duty) Nashua did not show up for the Brooklyn. That left what appeared to be a rather well-matched field—on paper—and an excellent race resulted.

Dedicate was made the public choice at 1.75 to 1. He won it, but he had to show fine courage to accomplish his mission.

Dedicate (*Princequillo—Dini, by John P. Grier) raced into the lead at the beginning, with Find tagging along and War Piper going in third place.

The race became a duel between Dedicate and Find for three-quarters of a mile. Then Midafternoon ranged up and made it a threesome as they hit the three-sixteenth pole. At the head of the stretch, Midafternoon was in front by a head, with Find in second place by half a length.

In the stretch run, Dedicate came again and the three leaders hit the wire only heads apart.

Dedicate's nose was in front; Mid-afternoon was second and Find third. Paper Tiger, 2 1/4 lengths back, took fourth money.

Switch On, second choice in the race, was well up in the early stages but dropped back after going a mile.

The winner of the Brooklyn earned $37,600. Dedicate is a four-year-old, was making his fourth start of the year, and registering his initial 1956 win. He has been second 3 times and third once. The money from the Brooklyn puts his earnings at $55,100.

With 5 wins, a second and a third last season, he brought in $83,050.

Mrs. Burke bred the colt. The lady's father, G. Cary Winfrey trains him.

Eddie Arcaro was aboard for the Brooklyn.

The six-furlong Champlain Stakes (August 1) at Jamaica had an unhappy ending for favorite players, for the choice won and was disqualified.

Brookmeade Stables' Gandharva (pronounced Gundherva, I am told) was awarded the race though she arrived at the wire about half a second after Woodland Farm's Blue Sparkler. The latter was placed second by the stewards.

Blue Banner was third and Sometime Thing, fourth.

Venomous led most of the way, but tired badly after being nailed by Blue Sparkler. Then Gandharva tried to get past and was crowded, and got the money even though she didn't get racing room. Jockey Ovie Scurlock, who rode Blue Sparkler, was given a leave of absence of ten days for his part in the goings-on.

Worth $16,550 to the winner, the Champlain put Gandharva at $31,425 for 1956. The four-year-old filly has 2 wins and 2 seconds in 7 starts. She's by Olympia (he's always popping up these days) out of Psychic Bid's daughter, Psychist.

Last season she won 6 races including the Betsy Ross Stakes and Mermaid Handicap, was second 4 times and third once. She was sent postward 14 times.

Brookmeade bred as well as owned, Gandharva is trained by Preston M. Burch.

Robert Ussery rode her in the Champlain.

Handicap on August 4. And guess who did it. A colt named Ben A. Jones.

Swoon's Son, carrying 126 pounds to the winner's 119, was beaten four lengths in the mile test, which was run in the blazing time of 1:34-2/5.

Fabius was third and Dark Toga, stablemate of Swoon's Son, was fourth.

Ben A. Jones earned $15,950 for his owners, Henry D. Maggio and J. J. Gregory. The payoff at the window was $16.20 for $2. The colt has won $59,800 in '56, in 12 starts of which he has won 3 and placed in 2.

He was ridden by Willie Shoemaker. E. Kalensky trains the son of Faultless—Stamp Album, by Dauber.

J. B. F. Randolph bred him.

Claiborne Farm's Delta ran the seven furlongs in 1:21-3/5 to best the favored Dogoon in the Clang Handicap, opening feature of the Washington Park meeting, on July 30.

She won by a head after a bitter battle with the runner-up.

Trentonian was third.

The four-year-old daughter of *Nasrullah—Bourlai, earned $13,100, making her total for the year $94,250 and her lifetime earnings $264,955.

She captured the opening features at Balmoral and Arlington this season.

Steve Brooks had the mount in the Clang.

Claiborne bred Delta. Moody Jolley trains her.

After a neck-and-neck struggle through the last eighth, Reverie Knoll Farm's Romanita defeated Wilson & McDermott's Jolie Fille in the Mademoiselle Handicap on August 1.

Romanita won the six-furlong test by a neck.

Woodlawn was third and I Say No, fourth.

The race was worth $10,200 to Freeman Keyes, proprietor of Reverie Knoll.

Romanita is by Roman, from *Blenheim II's daughter, Mable. She was bred by W. W. Williams.

Frank Sanders trains her.

Willie Shoemaker had the mount in Mademoiselle and the filly was the public choice.

Monmouth Park

With lifetime earnings of but $3,400, George D. Widener's King Grail was deemed second least likely to win the Choice Stakes at Monmouth on August 4, which was very poor deeming on the part of the betting public.

The *Ambiorix colt turned in a surprising performance, defeating Combustion II by a neck returning a nice mutuel payoff of $33 to each $2 investor who believed in him.

Third Brother was third, two lengths back of the second horse, and Canadian Champ finished fourth, another two back.

Actually, there is nothing wrong with King Grail's record except that there isn't much of it. He raced once last season and won that one.

He finished second first time out this year, and in his third try, the Lamp-lighter Handicap, he showed enough to suggest better things to come.

He brought in $19,350 through his Choice win.

St. Amour, the favorite in the race, was last during most of the mile-and-one-eighth gallop, and his closing move carried him past only two horses.

Ray Mikkonen rode King Grail in the Choice.

The three-year-old colt was produced by Blue Grail, a daughter of Blue Larkspur. He was bred by Erdenheim Farms Co.

J. Creevy trains for Mr. Widener.

Short Takes of Late Stakes

J. S. Kroese's Marullah (*Nasrullah—Marguery, by *Sir Gallahad III) won the Sorority Stakes at Monmouth on August 1. She defeated Herb's Miss by 2½ lengths, with Alpenrose third and On Her Way fourth. The race was worth $15,700.

The Junior Miss Stakes at Del Mar (August 1) went to Sully's Trail.

Honey's Alibi took the San Diego Handicap at Del Mar, on August 4.

Last week, I reported that Poona II won the Del Mar Inaugural on July 28. The date should have been July 21. On the 28th, Anchor Watch won the Ocean-side Handicap at the track beside the Pacific.

Awaits Imports

Trainer Michael G. (Mickey) Walsh is awaiting the arrival in the U. S. of three Irish imports, two of which he will groom for the United Hunts $50,000 added Temple Gwathmey Steeplechase Handicap at Belmont in October.

The horses are Ruby Brick, a 6-year-old gelding by Balkanic out of Rubia Linda and owned by Charles W. Stitzer, Jr.; Bangor Maine, a 4-year-old gelding by Nirgal out of Sis Rosie owned jointly by William H. Frantz and Walsh; and an un-named 2-year-old, also owned by Walsh. Ruby Brick was the winner in Ireland of the Rathdrum Hurdle Handicap. Mickey also expects to run him in the $22,000 Midsummer Hurdle Handicap, world's richest hurdle race, at Monmouth Park on Aug. 3.

Ruby's competition in both the Temple Gwathmey and the Midsummer is likely to include another Walsh charge, King Commander, owned by Lawrence R. Troiano, a retired Port Washington, L. I. contractor.

King Commander was the winner in 1954 of the Temple Gwathmey, world's richest 'chase and was the 1954 Steeplechase Horse of the Year, but was plagued with injuries last year. This year the dark bay gelding won one of his starts at Belmont, but injured his leg his last time out. He is now back in shape and Walsh says he is training well for the Midsummer Hurdle and a resumption of his comeback.

Skinner Buys Socko

Trainer Fitzsimmons, acting for Ogden Phipps, has sold the 3-year-old War Admiral filly Socko to Jack Skinner of Middleburg.

Bonny Busher Wins In Ireland

McGrath-owned American-bred filly Bonny Busher had her second success when taking the youngsters' Plate at the Curragh on Irish Two Thousand Guineas day.

By Mr. Busher out of San Bonita, Bonny Busher won by 2 1/2 lengths from her six opponents, covering the five furlongs in 59.85 secs.

Capt. Harry F. Guggenheim's Flying Fury Wins Midsummer Hurdle Handicap

Al Cadeaux

The unveiling of a hurdler of great promise and the upward turn of the sport were two highlights of the 1956 Monmouth Park hurdle season which concluded last Friday with the sixth running of the Midsummer Hurdle Handicap. The horse was Capt. Harry Guggenheim's Flying Fury, once a sulky performer on the flat, who never was headed in three appearances over the lesser obstacles at Monmouth, climaxing his efforts with a victory in the Midsummer. The barometer of the new interest in hurdle racing was evidenced by a 23 per cent increase in the pari-mutuel daily average over that of 1955. A total of $1,761,192 was wagered on the 14-hurdle programs series this summer for a daily average of $125,799 as compared to the $1,022,279 which was chanced on the 10 races last year for a daily average of $102,228.

Contested for the first time as an invitational event, The Midsummer Hurdle Handicap lured four of America's top hurdlers and England's *Belsay Castle. Under 143 pounds and the competent guidance of his rider, James Cotter, Flying Fury emulated his two earlier triumphs by carrying his speed to a front-running 2½ length, triumph over Mrs. Ogden Phipps' Neji, Steeplechase Horse of the Year in 1955, which was burdened with topweight of 164 pounds. Walter M. Jeffords' Policeman Day, winner of the Monmouth National Maiden Hurdle, finished in third position, four lengths behind the runner-up and three lengths to the fore of Mrs. C. Paul Denckla's Songai which was well in front of *Belsay Castle by a margin of some 30 lengths. Flying Fury's time of 3:53-3/5 established a track record for the about 2 miles event. The winner paid $11.80.

The former stakes winner on the flat (Champagne and Kentucky Derby Trial) overcame two successive faulty landings at the seventh and eighth hurdles of the 12-jump course in registering his first stakes triumph over hurdles. Flying Fury took a half-length advantage over Songai as the compact field headed for the first hurdle. It was at this point that Policeman Day and Neji, the even money favorite, brushed through the fence, causing Neji to receive a cut on the coronary band of his off hind leg. The stalwart jumper rallied in the later stages of the Midsummer but could not cope with the Cain Hoy Stable representative's dash between hurdles and came back lame in the injured member.

Mrs. Frank Leech's *Belsay Castle, which arrived at Monmouth Park four days preceding the Midsummer, via an air flight, trailed throughout the about 2 miles course. Ridden by the veteran English jumping jockey, Charles Hook, *Belsay Castle was unable to negotiate the firm footing of the Monmouth infield course, displaying little inclination to jump or extend himself on the flat.

Closest to Flying Fury at any stage of the running was Policeman Day which made a bold move at the pace-setter nearing the ninth obstacle after recovering well from a bad landing at the eighth hurdle. But in the last quarter-mile he weakened, permitting Neji to pass him.

Flying Fury, a home-bred 4-year-old son or *Nasrullah out of Sicily by Reaping Reward, brought his owner $15,000 of the $22,000 purse of the Midsummer, world's richest race of its kind. Capt. Guggenheim, who was present to see his colorbearer race, was the leading money-winning owner of the hurdle season with gleanings of $19,875 accomplished by Flying Fury's three victories. Hollie Hughes, trainer of Flying Fury, tied for conditioning honors with Sydney Waters, Jr., with three saddle successes each and R. G. Wolfe and Miss Elizabeth Bosley were bracketed with two victories each.

Cotter earned the leading rider award by virtue of his three victories astride Flying Fury while Albert Foot and Ken Field tied for second place, each with two riding successes.

Like so many of America's important turf events, the Midsummer was riddled with the forced declarations of several promising invitees. L. R. Troiano's King Commander suffered a reoccurrence of an injury sustained in his last race and was unable to stand training; France's Mehariste declined the issue explaining that the unfamiliarity of our oval courses as contrasted to the Continent's figure 8 courses would prove disadvantageous; Major General Richard K. Mellon's Chambourg elected to run in the United Hunts Purse on the previous day in which he emerged triumphant; Mrs. Vernon G. Cardy's English-bred Square Dance 2nd bled from the frog of one foot; Mrs. G. H. Bostwick's Hyvania threw a stifle; Mrs. Ogden Phipps' Ancestor injured a hoof while training; Winding Way Farm's Khumbaba wheeled in his last start hitting Miss Bosley's Best Gift, resulting in injuries to both of them. The reduced field enabled win and place betting only and the track showed a decline of some $11,000 in the handle of the Midsummer compared to a year ago.

To the credit side of the overall hurdle program, it must be mentioned that not one spill occurred in the 14 races contested this summer and that favorites won seven times.

Capt. Guggenheim received a handsome thistle shaped antique silver goblet trophy molded at the rim and base with a banded girdle of racing plates. The lower part of the body of the cup was decorated with a wreath design framing three third dimensional sculptured bridled heads of race horses.

Coasting to a 10-length triumph in the United Hunts Purse on August 1, Mr. Mellon's Chambourg gained his initial victory of the Monmouth Park summer hurdle season. Deciding in favor of this event, the week's secondary feature to the Midsummer to which he was an invitee, Chambourg, a 4-year-old bay gelding by *Rufigi out of Lettone by Flyon, carried 146 pounds and jockey James Murphy to his easy score in the about 1¾ miles test in 3:19 over a firm course. Louis Troiano and M. G. Walsh's Curly Joe made several thrusts at the leader but proved no match and held on well to hold W. C. Duryear's Breakers Ahead safe by a 1½ which was five lengths before Alvin Untermyer's Morpheus, a disappointing second choice in the wagering who lacked a rally. Chambourg paid $4.80 to win and was Trainer Sydney Waters, Jr.'s second saddle success of the meeting.

Newtondale Stable's Rose Fete gained her second successive victory on July 31 when she turned back 6 rival fillies and mares in an about 1½ mile event over hurdles. The 4-year-old chestnut by Fairly Manhurst out of Roseretter won by 3 lengths from Mrs. M. G. Walsh's Basilia which was a similar margin in front of Mrs. W. S. Whittaker's Odyssey, also seeking its second victory this season at Monmouth. Rose Fete followed the early pace of Thy Delight, assumed a clear lead at the sixth hurdle and turned back the challenge of Basilia to win rather easily. The 3-2 favorite was timed at 2:43-3/5 and was ridden by Ken Field.

Harry LaMontagne's Hurst Park, disqualified in his last effort here, won a narrow victory from Llangollen Farm's Get Lost on August 2 in a claiming race in the about 1¾ mile hurdle test. Happy Hill Farm's Marcheast ran third and preceded Bellevue Farm's Ares, the early pace setter by 4 lengths. The Irish-bred

Irish Mare

There is considerable elation in Ireland that the dam of the outstanding American two-year-old, Lucky Mel is out of a *Royal Charger mare, bred and raced in the green Isle. This is of course, Royal Mink, bred at Ballymore Eustace Stud, Co. Kildare, by Capt. Spencer Freeman. The American claim that Lucky Mel has achieved a world's record with 56 seconds for 5 furlongs, is not quite correct. Another Irish-bred, Devineress did the journey at Epsom in 1933, in 54.8. seconds.

Keeneland Summer Sales

The 1956 Keeneland Summer Sales closed with an average of $9,891 for 350 head. This was below the average of $11,167 realized at the 1955 sales of the Breeders' Sales Company, Lexington, Ky.

The high individuals, however, continued to bring phenomenal prices, and as in preceding sales there was no lack of bidders for the hip numbers that spelled out class in conformation, bloodlines, performance of sire and dam on the race course and produce record. Individuals that didn't measure up to the stiff requirements did not command the respect of the bidders.

The high mark of the sale was the $80,000 posted for the chestnut colt by *Nasrullah—Risqué Ma, by *Mahmoud, which was consigned by the Stoner Creek Stud of Mrs. John D. Hertz; the purchaser, the Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis Stable also paid $60,000 for the bay colt by *Nasrullah—Shy Katie, by Roman out of the same consignment.

Mrs. Richard D. Lunn, of Llangollen Farm, Va., who has shown many champions in the hunter and jumper divisions in show rings, paid $62,000 for a bay filly by *Nasrullah—Gala Belle, by *Sir Gallahad III out of the Forest Retreat Farm consignment. This was a new American record for a filly sold at public auction.

News from the STUDS

—KENTUCKY—

Jabneh's Half Brother

Laudy L. Lawrence, who races in France but boards his American breeding stock at Cy F. White's Elsmear Farm, Lexington, has a suckling half brother, by *Nahar II, to Jabe, the Bimelech colt which recently won a division of the $20,000-added Longfellow Handicap at odds of 207-10. The dam, Bellesoeur, winner of the Spinaway and Astoria Stakes, was bred to Helioscope this spring.

Mr. White, as Agent, bought Jabneh at the 1953 Keeneland Sales for $16,000 top price of the season for Bimelech yearling. The colt raced for Mr. Lawrence until he was sold privately last year to Mrs. Eugenia E. Bankhead.

Bull Run's First

Twilight Run, recent winner of a division of the $5,000 added Ak-Sar-Ben Juvenile Stakes for E. K. Carey, is the first stakes victor sired by Bull Run, who stands at A. B. Karsner's Karsland Farm, Lexington.

The unraced Bull Run is a full brother to Durazna and a three-quarters brother, by Bull Lea, to Miss Dogwood.

Twilight Run, bred by Scott and William Caldwell at the latter's farm, Cynthiana, was sold for $1,000 at last fall's Keeneland Sales. Later Mr. Carey bought her privately.

Mr. Sam S.'s Half Brother

Mr. Sam S. the Polynesian colt who recently won the $25,000-added Charles S. Howard Stakes, achieved his big victory just in time to boost the price of his half brother, by Mr. Busher, at the Keeneland Summer Yearling Sales, to which he was consigned by Mrs. Philip Connors.

At the same venue last year, Mrs. Connors who boards her Kentucky breeding stock at Dr. Charles E. Hagyard's farm, Lexington, sold Mr. Sam S. to Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis for $16,000. The dam, Equip, has also produced Starting Time.

Reception For *Tulyar

*Tulyar's arrival at the Lexington airport after a 14-hour flight from Ireland last week drew a smaller audience than that of *My Babu had drawn a few days earlier, primarily because of lack of co-operation from the elements. *Tulyar's plane landed during a drizzle that had lasted most of the day and that kept spectators in the shelter of their automobiles until the last moment.

Then they caught only a glimpse of Europe's leading money earner. He was rushed from plane to van in about 25 seconds, so fast that some of the photographers did not have time to focus their cameras.

They had to chase the $672,000 import to A. B. Hancock's Claiborne Farm, Paris, to make their pictures. But even there they had their difficulties, for unlike the dignified *My Babu, *Tulyar turned out not to be in a posing mood. Turned out in his paddock during a let-up in the rain, the 14-year-old son of Tehran frisked about like a two-year-old.

A. B. "Bull" Hancock, Jr., Manager of Claiborne, took the occasion to announce that *Tulyar's stud fee will be $10,000 for a live foal. F. T. P.

Sailor At Darby Dan

Sailor the syndicate stallion which won $321,075 for the Brookmeade Farm, Upperville, Va. has arrived at the stallion barn at John W. Galbreath's Darby Dan Farm, Lexington.

He has been assigned the same stall once occupied by Black Toney, Bimelech and Bubbling Over, when Darby Dan was part of the late Col. E. R. Bradley's Idle Hour Stock Farm. Sailor also has one of the famous Bradley stud grooms, Will Sanders. F. T. P.

—VIRGINIA—

Montpellier Youngsters

Among the two-year-olds which are currently being trained over jumps and on the flat at Mrs. Marion duPont Scott's Montpellier Farm near Orange, Virginia is the brown colt Chart by Battleship—Sun Flo, a full brother to the steeplechase stakes winners Eolus and Tide Rips; the bay geldings Helvellyn (Heliolus)—Queen Edith by Dastur and Benguala (Annapolis)—Bennu by *Heliopolis; and the brown filly Star Poinsetta (Pink Flower) imported from Ireland through Tim Vigors. Yearling colts include bays by Pintor—Reykjavik, by General Staff—Vireley and by *Daumier—Pulcinella. There is also a roan colt by Oil Capitol—Navy Jacket by Annapolis and a brown gelding by Pintor out of *Nerepha (by Pharis), the half-sister to *Nordlicht whose produce can only race over jumps at the major tracks since she is not recognized by the Jockey Club. A half-brother to this colt, Altus by Air Hero recently won a good race at Belmont Park.

Linder Buys *Solar Slipper Mare

Bertram N. Linder of Hickory Hill Farm, Dalton Pennsylvania writes: "I have just completed negotiations for the purchase from Succession Stud of the mare Madame Madcap, br. 1951, by *Solar Slipper (in whose syndicate I am a member)—*Maded by *Mahmoud, thus half sister to the dam of Lucky Mel, the sensational California 2 year-old, and world record holder. At her side is a suckling filly by Sayajirao, said to be the best looking filly dropped at the Irish National Stud this year, and she is in foal to *Tulyar. The mare and her foal are being shipped from Ireland shortly."

Chrysler Winner

Walter P. Chrysler, Jr., who sent many high class horses from his North Wales Stud Farm, Warrenton, Virginia, a few years ago before dispersing most of his horse interests is back in racing again with the high class filly Tourbillonte which won the Elmhurst Purse at Jamaica, July 26th.

Churchill's First Home-Bred Winner

The greatest British Statesman, Sir Winston Churchill, came to Ascot—complete with cigar!—on the day of Ribot's success in the King George VI Stakes, and was obviously delighted when his two-year-old Collision was a three-quarters of a length winner in the valuable Rosslyn Stakes after leading the whole way.

This was the first home-bred winner that Sir Winston has had and his pleasure was all the greater in that Collision was sired by that stout-hearted horse Colonelist who ran so many game races in the Churchill colours of pink and chocolate sleeves.

—P. T.-C.

Belgian Champion

After her Todrai had run so well to finish third in the King George VI Stakes behind Ribot, Mme du Bois told how she herself had hunted the dam Toute Bonne with the buck-hounds. "And how she used to pull" she said. Mme du Bois, the only woman trainer holding a licence in Europe, has a string of sixteen horses at her establishment close to the site of the Battle of Waterloo.

Favorites Continue To Win At Delaware

Figures just released by the United Hunts Racing Association show that winning favorites in steeplechasing, first evident at the Belmont meeting this season, continued through the Delaware meeting.

In the thirteen jumping races contested at Stanton, eight of the winners were the favorites. This high ratio—61 percent compares to the 63 percent of winning favorites at the Belmont spring meeting.

Only 33 percent of the flat-racing favorites were among Delaware's winners.

Even more striking was the number of favorites at Delaware that finished in the money in the jumping races. Twelve of the thirteen popular choices finished one, two or three.

Perhaps reflecting the consistency of the jumping thoroughbreds, the betting on steeplechase events at Delaware moved along at a record pace. A total of $906,006 passed through the windows for the jumping tests.

Blue Ridge Farm

A son of the good English runner and sire Petition tops the half a dozen offerings from Blue Ridge Farm, the Uperville, Va., breeding establishment of Mrs. George L. Harrison of New York.

The Petition colt, a top individual, is out of the Fordham Handicap Stakes winner Joyce Grove, producing half sister to the 1,000 Guineas victor Zabara, to last year's unbeaten English two-year-old Rustam and to the Priory Handicap captor Novara. Each of the next three dams were also added-money earners and produced at least two stakes winners apiece.

Mrs. Harrison also has the sale's only colt by My Request and the lone filly by *Nirgal. The former yearling is from African Star, producing half sister to Teddy's Comet and to Windmill's dam.

Mrs. John W. Hanes

The only Saratoga filly by *Ambiorix, whose daughters include such good fillies as High Voltage and Guard Rail, will be offered by Mrs. John W. Hanes, owner of Ben Tulloch Farm, Millbrook, N.Y. This miss is a half sister to the $102,860 earner Grandpere; to the Bay Meadows Lassie Stakes victor Grandmere, dam of the record-breaking Grantor; and to the stakes-placed Moon Bird.

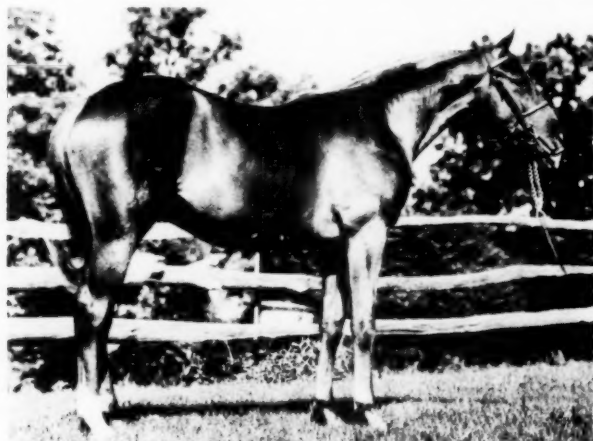

Meadowview Farms, Inc.

One of Saratoga's oldest and most successful consignors is F. Wallis Armstrong, Jr.'s Meadowview Farms, Inc., which has sold Eatontown and many other able performers at the Spa.

Meadowview will sell two colts by Slide Rule, the $133,585 earner which is being dam, Rash Hurry, is a full sister to Cavalcade and to Alerted's dam. A third Your Host colt is a half brother to the Belmont Park Fashion Stakes captor Remove. The remaining son of Your Host is out of Inchcapri, 100% producing half sister to Thanksgiving and Bud's Bell, the latter also the dam of Versify and grandam of Besomer.

A sensational runner until his active career was so tragically cut short, Your Host has made an equally sensational start as a sire, with Social Climber, Blen Host and Miss Todd in his first crop. Both Meadowview fillies are half sisters, by him, to high-class performers; in one case to Page-One who dead-heated with Thither in the Atlantic City Home-Bred Handicap; and in the other to last year's Deep Run Hunt Cup hero Democles. The latter's dam, the seven-race scorer Demolition, is a half sister to Mars Shield, Strange Device and By Far; and to the dams of Turf Sun, Metal Mike and Abstract.

The next dam, the stakes-placed and never unplaced Flying Comet, was a half sister to Insko and other distinguished horses.

*Nirgal's daughter is the third foal of Your Game, winning and producing half sister to the $182,310 earner Jampol. The third dam, the Coomb July Stakes victor Cora Pearl, was a half sister to the English Derby captor Pearl Diver. The next dam was that brilliant and never unplaced race mare Pearl Cap, whose triumphs included the French Oaks and 1,000 Guineas, Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and numerous other features.

Minnora and Minnow, a pair of producing half sisters foaled the other two Blue Ridge fillies. The former has a miss by Evening Out's sire, Shut Out; and the latter is represented by a daughter of Porterhouse's sire, *Endeavour II. The grandam, Minnant, produced the high-class performers Augury, Bold Salute, Blue Pennant and Magnificent.

represented this year most ably by Nance's Lad. One son of Slide Rule is the first foal of Floribunda, full sister to the stakes-placed Thorn; and half sister to the Longacres Speed Handicap winner C-Note and to the stakes-placed Briar Sharp. The grandam, Rose Petal, was a half sister to the high-class Brown Bud, Tola Rose and Primrose. The other Slide Rule colt is a half brother to the stakes-placed Decimal. The dam, the 100% producer Granheart, is a daughter of that able race mare Sweetheart, dam of Case Ace and Teddy Haslam, and of those brilliant foundation mares Appeal and Warrior Lass.

The latter is the dam of Knickerbocker; grandam of Bounding Home, Rumping Home, Breezing Home, Bold, Red Shoes and Smart Apple; and third dam of Nasrina and Ballerina. Warrior Lass's daughter Fable Lass, a 100% producer, foaled one of Mr. Armstrong's four Your Host colts. Another of his sons is a half brother to the Rosedale Stakes victor Hurriette. The

North Cliff Farm

A pair of yearlings by Mr. Busher which has gotten such able performers as Incidentally, Busher Fantasy, Beau Busher, Fantine Busher and Apollo, feature the half a dozen offerings from Mr. and Mrs. Melville Church II's North Cliff Farm, Rixeyville, Va.

The compact Mr. Busher colt is the second foal of Orage, winning and producing half sister to Pontius Pilate which took the International, Charles L. Appleton and Beverwyck Steeplechases. The third dam, Orageuse, was a half sister to Osmand and Brevity; and to the dams of King Cole, Reaping Reward and Whirlaway.

An Argentine-bred winner and producer, *Sonadora, foaled the robust Mr. Busher filly, the only one in the sale. The grandam, Sutileza, was a half sister to the leading Chilean three-year-old miss *Sumatra III, who in the U.S. showed in the Beverly Handicap, and has produced the high-class and hardy Cotton Joe. This is a classic family in both South America and England.

Another imported mare, the winning twin *Marble Hall, half sister to the record-breaking current handicapper Mister Gus, foaled a North Cliff filly, the auction's lone representative of the Australian crack *Bernborough, sire of Parading Lady and Gainsborough Girl. The grandam, *Fichu, captured the Histon Nursery Handicap. North Cliff's remaining miss is a half sister, by Errasina's sire Errard, to the Jeanne d'Arc Stakes captor Petit Bleu and to the stakes-placed Sundance Kid. The dam, Lask, is a half sister to the classy Petrolas.

Sons of Hill Prince and Sun Again complete Mr. and Mrs. Church's group. The colt by Sun Again, sire of Palestinian, Sunglow and White Skies, is a strapping half brother to the stakes-placed Adopt, Engel Man, Big Print and Pot Hunter. The dam, Noticing, is a winning half sister to the Correction Handicap scorer Wise Niece. Levee's sire Hill Prince is represented by the classically built first foal of Idiom, winning half sister to Straight Face and Register. Expression, grandam of this colt, accounted for the Arlington Lassie Stakes.

Another member of the Church family, Miss Margaret Church, has become a Saratoga consignor. Her magnificent colt by the Santa Anita Derby winner Knockdown, sire of Right Down and Well Marked, will be sold at the same time as the main North Cliff Farm consignment. Dam of this yearling is the producer Delicatus; and the third dam is that "blue hen" *Escuina, who foaled Bateau and Jean Bart.

Nydrie Stud

A score of choice yearlings, including seven out of stakes-winning mares and others out of previous stakes producers, make up Thursday's largest consignment, offered by Daniel G. Van Clief's Nydrie Stud, Esmont, Va.

Two of the Nydrie youngsters are imports: A colt from the first crop of the unbeaten English three-year-old Tulyar, and a filly by Arctic Prince's sire Prince Chevalier. Both are out of stakes winner and producers.

The Tulyar colt is a half brother to Royal Chancellor, victor in last year's Wilton Maiden Stakes; and to Beau Triomphe, who took the Brook Plate in Ireland. The dam, China Bay, captured the Curragh Autumn Sprint Handicap. Each of the next two dams was also a stakes producer.

Prince Chevalier's daughter is a half sister to Carola Pride, who accounted for the Downtown Handicap and Harborough

Plate. The dam, Riding Rays, triumphed in the Red Oaks and Girtton Stakes herself; and is a half sister to three other high-class performers. Infra Red, the next dam, annexed the Princess Elizabeth and Great Surrey Foal Stakes. She was a full sister to the brilliant race mare Eclair, dam of *Khaled and *Piping Rock; and a half sister to *Jacopo and *Foray II.

Besides these two imports, Mr. Van Clief will sell an imported-in-utero, American-foaled colt who is sure to attract a world of attention. For this yearling is a grand-looking son of Nearco, the most influential still active sire in the world now that Hyperion has been retired from stud duty. He is a full brother to the St. James's Maiden Stakes captor Cheveley Beauty, and a half brother to The Magistrate, who annexed the Windsor Castle Stakes, Rous Sweepstakes and Waterbach beaten four-year-old, and a near-champion in the intervening season. His colt, half brother to the record-breaking grass-course handicapper Alford, is out of Monogamy, full sister to the Sunset Handicap scorer Alderman.

Oil Capitol, earner of $580,756, performed brilliantly for five seasons at distances from five to ten furlongs. He has a filly from Stage Mother, winning and producing half sister to Curtice and Red Curtice and to the dam of Arab Actress and Scene One. Great Circle, earner of $285,870, included the Del Mar Derby, Santa Anita Maturity and Sunset Handicap among his triumphs. His filly is out of Birthday Party, winning and producing half sister to the Wakefield Handicap heroine Us, and to the dam of two Canadian stakes winners.

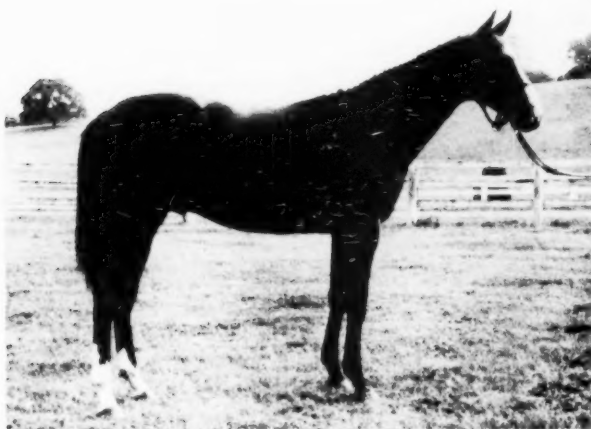

Another first-crop representative, at least in this country, is Mr. Van Clief's colt by the Italian champion *Daumier. Two more Nydrie colts are first foals by Free Handicap leaders currently rep-

Grayson Stakes, Bryan and O'Hara Memorial, Brandywine, Omnibus and Southern Maryland Handicaps, Pimlico Cup and $131,675. The dam, Tien Lan, is a half sister to the steeplechase star Banner Waves. Betsy Ross, the next dam, is a full sister to Bateau and Jean Bart; and a full or half sister to the ancestress of some 10 other stakes victors. The daughter of that quick progenitor Errard is out of Azalea, producing half sister to the superb Pavot and to the classy Lovat.

An eloquent commentary on the general quality of the Nydrie bunch is the fact that not until now do we come to a colt who would head most yearling consignments. This is a half brother, by the two-time leading sire *Heliopolis, to the Lafayette Stakes heroine Recover. The grandam, Entertainer, annexed the Sandown Park Holiday Plate in England.

Pine Brook Farms

Admirers of the "gray blood" will find a pair of interesting colts consigned by

CONSIGNED TO SARATOGA (Hip #133, left): bay colt by *Djeddah—Gallow, by *Sir Gallahad III, consigned by Morven Stud (Whitney Stone). (Hip #144, right): bay filly by Bimelech—Springbok, by Pompey, also consigned by Morven Stud.

Handicap in England; to Dark Minstrel, who acquired the Grand Prix de Lyon in France; and to the stakes-placed Judicial.

The best horse produced by the Van Clief family has been the $298,115 earner Rippey, whose record-breaking exploits included two runnings of the Toboggan Handicap and 10 other stakes. This year Nydrie will offer Rippey's half sister, by *Princequillo, sire of such excellent fillies as How, Cherokee Rose and Misty Morn. This is the only daughter of *Princequillo in the sale.

Crafty Admiral, earner of $499,200 was a crack handicapper from seven to 13 furlongs. His colt is the first foal of Errorless, a daughter of that great producer Bloodroot, whose foals include By Conscription, Bric a Brac, Be Faithful (also the dam of Lalun), Bimlette (also the dam of Maharajah) and Ancestor. Tom Fool, earner of $570,165, was the leading two-year-old, "Horse of the Year" as an unresented by their first crops of two-year-olds. A son of *Windy City II, who headed the Free Handicaps of England, Ireland and France, is out of Mint Spring, half sister to the Salinas Handicap tallier Kings Reward. A colt by *Big Dipper II, top-ranked on the English Free Handicap, is from Occupancy, who accounted for the Capitol Hill Handicap.

Another first foal is Nydrie's filly by Small Favor's sire *Priam II out of that fine race mare Spanish Cream, who acquired the Las Floras, Santa Maria and Santa Margarita Handicaps, and $126,650. Spanish Cream is a half sister to the good current juvenile filly Prophets Bell; and the next dam, Two Bells, is a half sister to Gallahadion and Big Dial.

Completing the feminine portion of the Van Clief score are daughters of Shut Out and Errard. The filly by Evening Out's sire Shut Out is a half sister to that fine router Double Brandy, who captured the

Dr. and Mrs. Frank A. O'Keefe's Pine Brook Farms, Warrenton, Va. The roan is the only Saratoga yearling by the mighty weight-carrier and excellent sire Discovery, and the gray is the sale's lone son of the Pine Brook home stallion *Piping Rock.

The latter, half brother to *Khaled, gets offspring of remarkable versatility. This colt's dam, Blue Devil, won a dozen races herself; and is a producing half sister to Wise Balla's grandam.

Dam of the son of Discovery is Mackle, young winning full sister to the classy filly Carry the News and half sister to Icarian. The grandam, the 100% producer Legend Bearer, placed in five stakes. She is a half sister to Small World, also the dam of Coincidence and Whats New; and to Mr. Trouble, who, like Mackle, is by *Mahmoud. Motto, this colt's next dam, took the Arlington Lassie and Belmont Fashion Stakes.

2-YEAR-OLD DIVISION BOASTS

FOUR STRONG TITLE ASPIRANTS

There will be more than one important election in November and for one set of candidates, at least, no landslide predictions are being made at the moment though partisan optimism runs high in no less than four camps.

If the 2-year-old Champion were up for election today the title would be loudly claimed by California for Mr. and Mrs. George L. Lewis' Lucky Mel; by the Midwest for Fred W. Hooper's Greek Game; by the East for Wheatley Stable's Bold Ruler while a loud clamor would be heard from New England where Dr. Peter Graf-fagnino's Beauguerre romped to four of his five straight victories.

Fortunately, perhaps, the TRA Board of Selection does not have to cast an official ballot until after a couple of "gallop" polls are contested this fall with the running of the Belmont Futurity and the Garden State Stakes.

The Futurity traditionally attracts the top juveniles of the country and tests them over a straightaway of 6 1/2 furlongs of the Widener Course and, while the nominations have not yet been announced, it is understood that Bold Ruler, Greek Game and Beauguerre are pointing for the race.

All four of the top candidates mentioned are in The Garden State which closed recently with no less than 237 nominees and a value of $241,210 not counting entry and starting fees of $1,000 each and the possibility of supplementary entries at $10,000.

ARC DE TRIOMPHE

Three more American owned and bred horses have been nominated for the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe to be run at Longchamps near Paris on October 14th. They are C.V. Whitney's Fisherman and Career Boy and Lady Lawrence's Beau Diable.

UK ACCEPTS GRAYSON GRANT

The Board of Trustees of the University of Kentucky last week accepted a grant of $45,000 from the Grayson Foundation, Inc., for work on equine virus abortion.

MOOERS SUFFERS HEART ATTACK

Clifford Mooers, owner of Walnut Springs Farm, Lexington, Ky., last week suffered a mild heart attack while on a fishing trip in the Gulf of California. He was hospitalized at La Jolla, Cal., but his condition is not considered serious.

DISTANCE RACES

The powers that organize are considering one day a week devoted to distance races. That sprung from letters and editorials going back and forth between THE BLOOD HORSE and the managements of several tracks. One of the New England tracks suggested a day of 2-year-old races. THE BLOOD HORSE came back with the suggestion that a day of distance racing would be more important from the standpoint of racing and breeding. The next thing was a letter from the Pimlico people that they might try it. Maybe if Pimlico gets the ball moving, somebody else will pick it up and run with it, too. Then, we'll begin to get a background from which we can develop our own sires with perhaps a little bottom to transmit to succeeding generations.

STATE'S SHARE $1,461,501

Narragansett Park's recent meeting finished with higher attendance and mutuel figures than any summer meeting of recent years which enabled it to become one of the few tracks in the country showing marked increases this year.

$1,461,501 was paid to the State of Rhode Island, the smallest state in the Union, as its share of the pari-mutuels take and breakage, collected through this 24-day meeting.

*ARCTIC PRINCE AT SPENDTHRIFT

*Arctic Prince (Prince Chevalier--Arctic Sun) who won the Epsom Derby in 1951, recently arrived at the Spendthrift Farm of Leslie Combs II. After being loaded in the plane beside *Solar Slipper who preceded him, *Arctic Prince protested so vigorously that he was unloaded and allowed to travel by boat instead.

PICKING YEARLINGS

Mr. G.A. Oldham who lives in Bermuda, bought at the Dublin Horse Show Sales in 1954 with the cooperation of his trainer Harry Wragg, two yearling colts at 1350 and 1550 guineas, respectively. With Talgo he won the Irish Derby and with Lucero the Irish Two Thousand Guineas. At the same sales trainer Wragg bought for his own account, also at a modest price, the filly Garden State with which he won the Irish Oaks this year. Quite a buying feat.

DR. WILLIAM LOGAN

Death recently claimed Dr. William F. Logan, DVM, head of the Federal Agricultural Research Service at Fort Worth, Texas, and well known to race trackers and breeders all over the country. A native of Cheyenne, Wyo., Dr. Logan was graduated from the Colorado A & M College and was Past President of the National Association of Federal Veterinarians.

THOROUGHBREDS IN JAPAN

A strong reminder that the breeding of Thoroughbred race horses is now carried on all over the world is contained in the Japanese motion picture, entitled "The Phantom Horse," currently playing at the Normandie Theatre in New York. It is not merely a beautiful picture of Japanese scenery; even the dyed-in-the-wool racing fans like it.

RIDERS SCARCE IN TEXAS

Wayne Locklear, manager of the vast Reynolds Brothers ranch and nursery at Weatherford, is beating the bushes all over the southwest in an effort to locate a light youngster to assist him in breaking the five Reynolds Brothers' yearlings at the ranch. Heretofore Wayne has been able to snatch a boy from either brother Clyde or Jack, but these worthies are having their own troubles, and both advised Wayne to localize his efforts.

RACES AFTER BROKEN BACK

Last winter, the five-year-old mare Southern Accent reared up while being shod and fell over backwards, breaking her back just above the withers. Dr. Robert Copelan kept her as quiet as possible in a stall for 40 days, so successfully that she won a race 13 weeks to the day after the injury. She is currently racing for Henry Maggio and J.J. Gregory and has earned some $25,000.

NEW PANAMA TRACK

On July 14th, President Ricardo (Dickie) Arias of Panama, officially opened the new Hipodromo General Remon, one of the most luxurious racing plants in the Americas. It has a magnificent setting fourteen miles from Panama City surrounded by tropical forests of bamboo, mango and mahogany; the stands seating 8,000 people; the paved parking area accommodating 4,000 cars; the grandstand reinforced concrete and white stucco, trimmed with bright red; and the barns containing 506 stalls being absolutely fireproof. Arthur Froehlich, who will design the new Aqueduct, was the engineer for the mile oval.

RIBOT WINS

The great Italian 4-year-old Ribot, won his 14th victory in as many starts at Ascot on July 21st like a champion, when he beat the Queen's High Veldt going away by five lengths in the twelve furlong King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes, thus equalling the record of Nearco, who was also bred and owned by Frederico Tesio and the Marchese Incisa Della Rocchetta. Undoubtedly the best horse of his generation, he has received an invitation (the first) to compete in the Washington, D.C., International at Laurel, Md., next autumn.

THE SPINSTER

The Spinster, a $50,000 added weight-for-age race for three and four-year-old fillies and five-year-old mares, at a distance of a mile and a furlong, will be inaugurated by Keeneland Race Course at its forthcoming fall meeting, it was announced by Duval A. Headley, track president.

The Spinster will be unique in American racing in that it is the only weight-for-age stakes race in existence for fillies and mares. This condition of the race alone - weight-for-age - will tend to insure a field of the best fillies and mares from each of the three age groups.

BRITISH JOCKIES WEAR HELMETS

The rule, effective in Ireland since March 17 last, that all jockies must wear crash helmets, won the support of the Stewards of the Jockey Club of Great Britain at their meeting held on July 4.

Under the Rules of Racing, all jockies will be compelled to wear protective skull caps in all races, including flat races, from September 10 next.

The crash helmets must be of an approved pattern; those already in use in Ireland are based on the U.S.A. design. S.L.

SANTA ANITA STAKES AND PURSES

The richest Thoroughbred racing program in the history of Santa Anita Park, aggregating an estimated $3,275,000 in stakes and purses, has been announced by Director of Racing Carleton F. Burke for next winter's 20th season, opening Wednesday, Dec. 26, and extending 55 days through Monday, March 11. Included will be a record $1,120,000 in added money for 33 stakes, seven of which will be presented on the distinctive hillside-infield Camino Real Turf Course.

ASCOT GOLD CUP WINNER FOR

LAUREL INTERNATIONAL

Present intentions are that Marcel Bous-sac will send his Ascot Gold Cup winner Macip to contest the Washington D.C. International at Laurel Park in November.

F.E.I. World's Championship Jumping Event

Hermann Friedlaender

Monday, July 9th

The World Championship at Aachen, Germany, has been terribly exciting. The three qualifying events have been held and tomorrow will be the finals between Fritz Thiedemann on Meteor; Raimondo D'Inzeo on Merano; Francisco Goyoaga of Spain on Fahnenkonig; and Delia of Argentina on Discutido. Winkler did not recover enough from Stockholm to participate here. In the championship qualifying events the four "greats" came out on top - excepting Winkler, of course. Each country was allowed two riders and each rider could have two horses for the first two events. Then after the second event, each rider had to declare which horse he was going on with, and with that horse the rider took all his best scores, regardless of which horse he got them with. Scoring was done on the basis of placings. The first event was a speed event and was won by Goyoaga, with R. D'Inzeo second, Thiedemann third and fourth, Cruz of Spain fifth, P. D'Inzeo sixth, Delia of Argentina seventh, but not on the horse which he ultimately chose. Steinkraus had a clear round, but so slow that he actually got time faults, so he was tenth. The second test was a puissance in which there was only one jump-off, so R. D'Inzeo, this time on The Quiet Man, a Brazilian and P. D'Inzeo got equal first. D'Oriola on Voulette, an Egyptian and Thiedemann were equal 4th, Hugh Wiley on Master William (the most gorgeous gray - Nemethy says fresh out of the hunting field) was 7th, a Portugese 8th, and Steinkraus, Delia of Argentina, a Japanese and Goyoaga of Spain were all equal 9th.

The third qualifying event was a Prize of Nations course which each rider had to take twice - just like the Olympics - and he could only use one horse. Only 16 riders remained out of the original 33. After the first round we were terribly excited as Steinkraus had been the first to go clean with First Boy, but again slowly and carefully to pick up 3/4 point for time! Then there were 3 clean rounds, Pessoa of Brazil, R. D'Inzeo of Italy on Merano and Thiedemann with Meteor. Goyoaga picked up 4 faults, as did P. D'Inzeo on Uruguay. D'Oriola was eliminated in the first round on 3 refusals at the in-and-out with Voulette! Delia on Discutido also had one refusal at the in-and-out for 3 faults.

In the second round, Steinkraus caught the first element of a huge parallel and got 4 more faults - he surely rode beautifully though. Then P. D'Inzeo fell all apart and got 19 more faults, which definitely put him out of the running. The Argentine rode a faultless round, thus ending with a total of 3 faults and assuring himself of 4th spot. Thiedemann, D'Inzeo and Goyoaga also had faultless second rounds.

The finals tomorrow should really be something. There will be Meteor, which we are dying to see ridden by these other men. And Merano, the beautiful-going Italian horse which gave a faultless round for every man that rode him in the last world championship. Then Goyoaga who was the first world champion will provide terrific competition. And, finally, little Delia of Argentina on his cat-like little jumper which won for him the Hamburg Derby. However, general opinion gives him no chance tomorrow and most of the opinions seem to favor D'Inzeo as being the best in the world today. Certainly his style is the best.

Tuesday, July 10th

Well, the big event is over, and what a day it was. We sat in the participants box, which, though not the best seats, are the most fun because you are in the center of the teams and join in their excitement, victories and disappointments. The weather was terrible, a constant heavy drizzle that blew in our faces all day, before it was over we were quite soaked, even though we were under cover. The tension was terrific. We were given the starting order and the order in which all four riders would ride each horse.

The first to go was Delia on his Discutido. We learned afterwards that he was the most nervous of all, which accounted for his bad fortune, for it was truly a battle of nerves. He immediately got into trouble on the triple in-and-out -- first a knockdown, then a refusal, and finally, two time penalties! Thiedemann next on Meteor with a beautiful clear round. D'Inzeo on Merano with a clear round, but 1/2 time fault -- he was very cautious. Then Goyoaga clear on his Fahnenkonig. Next round they skipped Delia, so Thiedemann rode Discutido. Most interesting. They were given 3 minutes to get acquainted with the horse and during that time could take 2 jumps. Thiedemann was really bouncing around on this difficult little ball, which reacted to all attempts to control it by putting its head high in the air, no matter how low the rider carried his hands and despite martingale. Thiedemann's job was not easy, after the horse had given so much trouble the first trip, but this rider had a faultless round - his energetic work through the in-and-out combination a real delight to watch.

Next went D'Inzeo on Meteor, something we were all waiting for. D'Inzeo immediately looked like Thiedemann! It was fantastic! His legs straightened out, his arms carried stiffly low. And again, riding carefully he went over the course. At the second to last obstacle, No. 7, the great stone wall, he had his only difficulty. Rounding the turn from No. 6, a wide-sweeping turn, Meteor almost got away from him. For a minute the crowd was on its feet, practically groaning with him. He fought the big horse around into the jump and took this most formidable obstacle at an unbelievable angle! Almost off the corner! Only a nose of Meteor's ability could get away with it. What a moment -- but a clean round! Then Goyoaga with Merano. Goyoaga is generally very much with his horse over a fence, but between fences he is not so smooth as D'Inzeo and Thiedemann. Merano resented his heavy hands and tossed his head impatiently. Goyoaga goes very fast between fences, then rather roughly places his horse for the last 3 strides.

Children's Vaulting At Verden

Hermann Friedlaender

Sunday morning we drove to Verden, arriving at the center of riding activities, The Riding and Driving School, just at noon. We had an appointment to meet Mrs. von Nostitz-Walwitz at 1:00, a lady highly recommended to us in connection with children's vaulting groups, a subject which has been of special interest to my wife for several years. While awaiting Mrs. von Nostitz, we had lunch in an attractive restaurant right in the riding school.

When Mrs. von Nostitz arrived, we learned to our delight, that she had arranged with the chief instructor, Mr. Hansen, for a demonstration by the children, especially for us.

The ten children ranged in age from 7 to 13, about equally divided between boys and girls. They all wore red jerseys, the girls having short little gray skirts and the boys wearing gray shorts. All had white tennis shoes. After being individually introduced to us and shaking hands with each of us, they lined themselves up along the wall of the covered riding school, according to size, and the horse was brought in which they were to use. We were surprised to see such a large animal for this work—he was about 15'3"—and were told that their regular horse which was smaller, had become lame and had to be replaced. Mr. Hansen longed the horse and directed all the work of the children. Using a surcingle with handgrips the children took turns running in from the sidelines, vaulting on to the horse and going through various exercises all at the canter—scissors, flag, standing, touch down and up, somersault off, etc. Later, they worked in pairs with shoulder stands, passing from front to rear positions, etc.

At the end we also saw how they go about breaking in a new horse for the work. A young horse was brought in and started at the canter. At first, every time a child ran toward it, it would stop. The child would pat it, vault on even though the horse was standing still, and jump off the other side. As this work continued, the horse finally would only break into a trot when approached. Even though it was much harder for the children to work from a trot, at this stage of training the horse was permitted to go at a trot quite a bit of the time.

When the horse began to tire, it was stopped and turned over to the children for about 10 minutes. While one of them held it at the head, the others swarmed all over it, climbing on and off from every conceivable angle, patting it, feeding it sugar etc.

Though the children do exhibition work and even put on a circus once a year, the main purpose of the vaulting work is to give children confidence, balance, rhythm, grace, a feel for the gaits of the horse and a real sympathy with and love for the horse. We were told that this particular vaulting group had done no saddle riding of horses until last Christmas, at which time they were all mounted for the first time and rode beautifully. Mrs. von Nostitz starts with youngsters as young as 3 years old on a tiny Shetland pony stallion called Patrone. We saw this little fellow in a pasture with his "harem" of some 10 diminutive Shetland mares with their unbelievable small foals at side. A sweeter dispositioned animal would be hard to find and all the little tots have complete confidence in him.

Opening Ceremony, U.S.E.T. Benefit Show, Denver, Colo.—Sandy Phipps (torch); Karen Phipps (American Flag); Sherry McMurtry (Olympic Flag); Susan Dukes (Colorado Flag); Marta Phipps (Arapahoe Riding Club Flag); Caro McMurtry, Ellie Crockett, Gertrude Grant, Diana Sweet, Mrs. David M. Davis, carrying the symbolic rings.

We were told that the children love this vaulting work so much that they cry and are terribly upset when they are told they have become too big and must stop. We have been promised a moving picture of the vaulting school and hope that when it arrives, it may prove to be of interest among riding teachers in America.

WINDSOR HORSE TRIALS FILM

A new film, specially produced for the Pony Club, of the Olympic Horse Trials at Windsor, has now been added to the British Horse Society Film Library. The film is a 16mm "talkie," covering the three days of the trial and showing many of the international horses and riders in action. One section follows the progress of the winner, Kilbarry, through the event.

Instructive commentaries on the three phases are given by Mrs. V.D.S. Williams (Dressage), Colonel Frank Weldon (Cross Country) and Miss Pat Smythe (Show Jumping). The film is directed by Brigadier Keith Dunn.

F.E.I. Jumping Event

D'Inzeo goes slowly, places Merano carefully for the last 3 strides, then pushes. So Merano was over-rushed at the first fence, but made it. On the second, he was again rushed in, then Goyoaga began his last 3 strides -- pull, pull, pull and Merano said "no" at the third pull and quit! Goyoaga learned his lesson and left the horse pretty much alone the rest of the trip. Finally collected 3 faults.

Delia again, now with Fahnenkonig. Again the poor fellow had in-and-out trouble and brought down the 1st and 3rd elements! Eight more faults!

Thiedemann was skipped for this round and D'Inzeo went next on the little fireball Discutido. All riders looked unhappy on this horse, but all did better than his own rider. D'Inzeo went faultlessly again. Then Goyoaga with Meteor. He tried rushing this horse at first but settled down and let him jump in his own fashion, and things went fine. Goyoaga profited from D'Inzeo's turning experience, and didn't give "the thick one" a chance to bear out. Faultless performance.

Delia did pretty well on Merano by not interfering with him, but he still caught one fence for another 4 faults.

Thiedemann, at the moment in the lead, now on Fahnenkonig. This looked quite easy. Then the very high post and rails of No. 6. The take-off looked a bit ragged and it is assumed that Thiedemann either sat back a little far or fell back; anyway the horse dropped its hindlegs, brought down the rails and Thiedemann went from 1st place to 3rd place! D'Inzeo was now skipped for a round and Goyoaga rode his last round on Discutido. He rode this horse the best, according to Bill Steinkraus, because he was physically the strongest rider and that is what it took on this horse. A faultless round and an assured 2nd place -- maybe 1st if D'Inzeo got into trouble on his last round.

Poor Delia, now on Meteor, couldn't be granted one clear! Even with the machine-like fat one, he had to have one fence down, racking up a total of 25 faults. Thiedemann finished up on Merano with no faults and now the big moment -- D'Inzeo's last round on Fahnenkonig which had been Thiedemann's bad fortune.

Raimondo rode so carefully. He had one bar bounce on No. 5 and come back to rest again which nearly gave everyone a stroke! On he went so carefully and came over the last fence rapping it smartly, but it didn't fall -- he looked back to see and then a big smile! He was a most popular winner and there was great excitement and bands, etc. and Winkler gave him his gold ribbon and Prince Bernhard presented him the F.E.I. GOLD MEDAL.

To have one knockdown actually decide the event was unique - the championship has never had such low scores or had to be won almost by a clear performance throughout. Incidentally, D'Inzeo got another 1 1/4 time points on his last, careful round with Fahnenkonig, making his total faults 1 3/4.

British Donkey Club

Susan Dinnage

The Donkey Club is an entirely voluntary organization - NO helper receives remuneration of any kind for services rendered. It was founded by my husband and myself in October 1951 for the protection of this humble, abused and often misunderstood little animal, at the same time combining our activities for the benefit of handicapped children, i.e. cripples, spastics, mentally deficient, blind and the orphaned.

Since the Club was founded over three hundred donkeys have been saved from inhumane slaughter and other undesirable conditions, and by the efforts of the donkeys that have been saved over 12,000 pounds has been raised and distributed to worthy causes.

Our annual Whit-Monday Donkey Show and Race Meeting at Wivelsfield Green, Sussex has now become very widely known and over twenty thousand spectators attend this meeting each year which is the biggest of the season, and results in a net profit somewhere in the region of 1,600 pounds.

We are just ordinary, humble village folk, but we respect God's command of Love and Goodwill towards all creatures - surely then, this must be the secret of the phenomenal success achieved.

Each year we run "THE MUMMERS MOKES RACE" in which many of our leading stage and screen celebrities enter their own steeds. This year the race was won by Mr. Johnnie Ray's entry "ALVIN" the only American entrant.

Racing under Donkey Club Rules has become exceedingly popular in Sussex during the past two years. Every donkey has to be inspected by a qualified veterinary surgeon before racing, and may not carry a greater weight than he sanctions, and in any event not more than nine stone (126 lbs.). In most cases, they are ridden by small children who weigh no more than five or six stone. These children normally ride bareback and they are not permitted to carry whip or spurs or any other artificial means of inducement. Knowing the idiosyncrasies of donkeys, it would be hard to believe that any one of them would do anything which it did not wish to under such circumstances. Donkey Racing is enormous fun and attendances at the nine meetings held so far, have averaged well over five thousand. The whole of the profits of these meetings must be donated to charity, although the Racing Clubs themselves may, subject to the approval of the Donkey Club, decide to which particular good cause the proceeds of their own meetings should be presented. By this means alone, no less than 3500 pounds has been distributed during the past two seasons.

One of the Donkey Club rules provides: "The use of dope, ginger, hot potatoes, holly leaves, etc., is strictly prohibited."

Winner of the 1956 "Mummers Mokes Race" was no less a personage than American singer Johnnie Ray. A local newspaper account of the race reads: "Mr. Johnnie Ray has every reason to feel proud of his donkey 'ALVIN' for 'ALVIN' won the 'MUMMERS MOKES RACE' at Wivelsfield Green Donkey Derby this Whit-Monday. He wins 13.6.0. for himself and there is also an amount of 18. to be donated to an actor's or variety artists' benevolent fund he chooses to name.

"In spite of a bad start by running in the wrong direction the jockey quickly brought

A young member of the Donkey Club, takes his mount over a jump in a steeplechase race.

"ALVIN" under control and it soon became a terrific battle with Arthur Askey's "FOUR-EYES." "FOUR-EYES" was well in the lead until a few yards before the finish he recognized a relative in the crowd and this gave "ALVIN" the chance he was waiting for. With a triumphant bray he pounded forward to win by a short neck. It was a great race, and, when safely won, both donkey and jockey had a good cry!"

Thornhill

Genial Dick Day made his Annual Show a Recognized one this year in aid of the St. John's Ambulance Brigade. Ninety or more horses came for the 20 events which commenced at 9:30 A. M., yet by 8:30 P. M. two events were called off due to the lateness of the hour.

Onondaga Horsemen's

Ted Roulston's new acquisition, G Junior, ridden by Suzanne Digney, was the outstanding horse of the day. Putting on a smooth, steady, hardworking performance, the good looking black gelding performed equally well in the ring and over the outside course to garner the hunter championship.

One of the most popular wins was Pat Weller's triumph in the MacLay class. This young rider has come a long way in a years time and she and her bold moving Play Tour are now jumping better than ever.

Eugene

A number of outstanding performances caused this 18th annual Eugene Hunt Club Horse Show to be outstanding in the eyes of spectator and exhibitor alike. Horses were chipped in from both California and Washington to take part in the show.

It was generally felt that the hunter's stake was the best performance class to be seen in this area in years. Nearly every horse jumped and galloped like he was out to win, but it seems that Mrs. Harry Samuels green mare, Phar Rhona, out jumped and outstriped the field to come home with the blue.

Information Wanted

Dear Sir:

We are writing with the hope that perhaps some of your readers could help us out.

In the training program of the Junior Essex Troop we use the Cavalry School Manuals—"Horsemanship and Horsemastership" Volume I and Volume II Part Three. After the closing of the Cavalry School these were available through the Book Store of the Army General School.

As the Army General School and the Book Store no longer exist at Fort Riley we have been unsuccessful in obtaining any information as to the availability of these books.

We are interested in these texts in quantity and if any of your readers should know what may have happened to any stock left on hand when the book store closed, we would appreciate hearing from them.

"Olympic Appraisal"

Dear Sir:

I should like to thank you very much indeed for the nice words and for your kind and so valuable opinion in your editorial "Olympic Appraisal" June 29th. Then came the excellent report by Col. C. E. G. Hope. Every one of his observations are perfectly correct and very valuable indeed for any rider of Three Day Events or for the members of any Organizing Committee in future.

We must understand one basic principle. The Olympic Games, or any International Event for that matter, are not trials for children, and it is silly to expect that a Three Day Event Test will be only some sort of pleasant hack or an easy hunter trial. The tests which competitors must face are trials of much more than wind and muscle. They are the most searching, all-round tests, to which horse and rider can be put.

The tens of thousands of spectators at the Olympic Games, whether they be new to the events or experienced watchers, expect to see the best performances executed by the best combinations of riders and horses selected from their countries. If we understand and accept this we also have to accept Col. Hope's concluding remarks:—"For every country the lesson of the Olympics is that inefficiency does not pay and is unfair to the horse."

I hope Colonel Hope will forgive me if I add to his article the score of the Italian Team. The 7th and 9th individual places by Guitierrez and Capuzzo, and Molinari's good dressage marks should be taken into consideration in future, perhaps more than the Russian accomplishment at Stockholm. Italy finished 5th with 691.14 points ahead of Argentina with 724.18 points, U.S.S.R. with 1,112.33 points and Switzerland with 1,360.90 points.

The course at Stockholm was stiff, very impressive and, I think, fair. Actually the percentage of teams and riders which finished this course was higher than at all previous Games. We can expect that the course at the Rome Olympics in 1960 will be as difficult, if not more so, as the Stockholm course and that we will meet better prepared and better schooled teams, especially after Stockholm's lesson.

Many of these looking at the photographs printed after the endurance test in different magazines or newspapers, may have got the impression that every rider who takes part in this competition will certainly end up in the hospital and his horse in the cemetery! Photographers naturally want unusual pictures. They keep forgetting (and few of them care) that the horses and riders which jump without trouble are the best and probably the winners!

Ending my letter, I would like to express my sincere thanks to the members of the Equestrian Olympic Committee and to the young riders for the hard work, spirit, energy and determination shown during the training period and at the Games. This and their confidence in my knowledge and advice and my confidence in their talents and ability won the Olympic Bronze medal for Canada. I will always be proud indeed that I had the opportunity to coach such wonderful gentlemen and riders.

There are also the men to whom I and

POLO

Polo In Hawaii

Com. G. W. Kittredge, USN

It is a little late to be writing about 4th of July polo matches in Honolulu. However, I was delayed by the Government. Not directly, you understand, but after a fashion. It happened this way. With the usual procrastination, I waited a couple of days before looking up a typewriter. Mine's still with my household effects somewhere on the bounding main. Then, I went to sea. There is only one typewriter in the Yeoman's shack on a submarine. Of course, I could have used it. But if the word got around that table. The mare went down and rolled over with Campos' pony galloping over her—and Von Tempsky. When the dust cleared, Gordon von Tempsky lay motionless. You could have heard a papaya drop in the grandstands. He lay there for several minutes and then got up and continued to play the chukker out. But he was hurt and in the second chukker, Peter Baldwin substituted for him.

Maui had started the game fielding a 14 goal team to Oahu's goal combination which meant that Maui had to make up 7 goals during the course of the action (and if you think the addition is wrong, check the indoor rules). Peter Baldwin played well but he is rated at 2 goals compared to Von Tempsky's 6 and this which was absolutely green, right off a ranch about two weeks ago. In fact, it was the only green pony on the field.

Fox Texas, the outstanding player was the veteran Carl Beal. Time after time Carl bailed his team out of rough situations with his magnificent near side backhand shots. It was good polo.

A Double Header

They played the galloping game in Honolulu stadium on 14 July, a double header. The first game was between Maui and Oahu. Manduke Baldwin at No. 2 position for Maui was the outstanding player of the game and of the evening too for that matter. The game began with Maui giving Oahu 7 goals by handicap. In the first chukker the Maui team, superbly mounted on their own Thoroughbred ponies, knocked in three goals while the Oahu trio tallied two. Then, the Division Commander spent his time at sea writing up polo games, who knows, it might have started a Congressional investigation.

Photographer Evelyn F. Hill got seven of the eight contestants in this action shot during Santa Barbara's polo season, in a match between San Francisco and White Swan. The players in the scrimmage are (l. to r.): Crites, Linfoot, Graber, Coles, Cross, Hitchcock and Gilmore.

The double header in Honolulu stadium the night of 3 July was sponsored by the Shriners. The first game was between Oahu and Maui. The fans were standing in their seats from the time the ball was thrown in until they walked out the grandstand portals.

The game began with Miss Hawaii 1956 (she's from Texas by the way) hurling the leather covered sphere at the waiting ponies' feet. Tommy Campos, riding at No. 1 for Oahu, caught the ball on the fly and knocked it along the right side boards. The Honolulu back, Gordon von Tempsky, galloped towards the defensive position. Campos went for the ball. Half way down the sidelines they met. By the time they got to the corner of the field von Tempsky was half a length ahead, the Maui mare being faster. But the two horses were still in contact and at the corner of an indoor field, as you well know, the side boards curve around towards the goal. There was no place for Campos' pony to go except into the hindquarters of Von Tempsky's mare. The result was inevi-showed up in the outcome because Maui still had to make up 7 goals, substitution or no substitution. To sum up the game in cold, hard facts, it went like this:

Oahu	Maui
Campos	G. Baldwin
Wilson	M. Baldwin
Rice	Von Tempsky
Handicap	P. Baldwin
Scoring—Oahu: Wilson 6, Rice 1, by Handicap 7. Maui: "Manduke" Baldwin 5, Von Tempsky 1, P. Baldwin 3.
Oahu	2 0 0 5 14, by hdep. 7
Maui	2 4 2 1 9

The second game of the double header saw a greatly improved Texas team lose 9 to 11 to a hard riding Honolulu trio sparked by 9 goal Peter Perkins.

"Sparked" is the wrong word to use in describing the polo play of Peter Perkins because you usually associate the word "spark" with something abrupt, explosive, and Perkins' polo technique is about as smooth as you could wish to see. He is one of the finest horsemen playing the game today and he does not have to ride the best ponies to run up a score. In this game against the Texas team he scored five goals in four chukkers with one of his ponies, a bright chestnut with the second chukker barely underway, Manduke Baldwin checked his horse sharply to avoid a collision. The horse came back on his haunches beautifully, squatting like a cowpony in a roping contest. But there must have been a slippery spot in the turf because the horse's hind feet went out from under him and he went down, pinning his rider. To make matters worse, Henry Rice, who was following about two lengths back, couldn't pull his horse up in time and ploughed into the fallen pair. Rice's horse went down, with Henry being thrown well clear over the neck. But his horse rolled over Manduke in getting to his feet. It was one of those spills where you hold your breath and wait to see if the player gets up again and all the time, you say to yourself, "This is a bad one. A real bad one!"

Now most players even the "pros", ease up a bit for the rest of the game when walking away from a wreck like that and to say it was a miracle for Manduke to get to his feet unhurt after two horses rolled over him would be no exaggeration. But, although, I suppose he must be slightly past the first bloom of youth or in other words on the downhill side of forty five, Manduke rode like a Rajput the rest of the night. All total, he slammed in 8 goals and it was his final shot in the overtime period that broke the tie and won the game for Maui. The scoring went:

Lineups

Maui	Oahu
G. Baldwin	Campos
M. Baldwin	Wilson
Von Tempsky	H. Rice

Scoring—Maui: G. Baldwin 2, "Manduke" Baldwin 8, Von Tempsky 4. Oahu: Campos 1, Wilson 4, H. Rice 1, 7 by handicap.

Maui 3 5 0 5 1 14
Oahu 2 0 3 1 0 13, 7 by hdep.

The second game of the double header was a surprise upset. A young, aggressive team composed of Woolaway at No. 1, Freddy Rice at No. 2 and Peter Baldwin at back, defeated the regular Honolulu team made up of Billy Baldwin, Peter Perkins and Eddy Hedemann by a score of 14 to 11. It was the first defeat of the season for the Honolulu side who gave away 5 goals by handicaps.

The game pointed up a number of interesting things. First, the cornell players are probably under handicapped due to their youth. Freddy Rice and Peter Baldwin are about on a par, with a slight edge going to Freddy largely because he appears to have a better game sense at the present time. However, Peter Baldwin hits better and as he gains in experience he will anticipate the play a little more. Maybe back is not the position for him although he hits a terrifically long ball. Anyway, I'll lay you ten to one odds that here is a real high goal player not too far in the future.

Of course, the player who made the most number of goals during the game was 9-goal Peter Perkins. He made 6 goals which I believe is the fewest he has made in any game this season. This was not due to Peter's game being off. He is the outstanding polo player in the Hawaiian islands at the present time, if not the best indoor man in the game today. But in this game he was well marked by Freddy Rice who didn't seem at all impressed by Peter's 9-goal rating. The other factor was that Peter always plays at least one green pony during a game. It speaks well for his sportsmanship that he doesn't shove them off on the visiting firemen.

Bishop Hollow Polo

Hervey Swann's Bishop Hollow Polo Club bit the dust on Sunday, July 22nd when the Lancaster Polo Club took the edge of the series between the two teams. Going into the fifth period Lancaster led by a score of 5 to 4 and then the roof caved in with three quick goals making it 8 to 4. In the final period, 3 more goals by Bill Carroll gave Lancaster the insurance in spite of the valiant efforts of the home team.

The defensive work of both Jack Ehmer and Jack Whiting was outstanding for the Bishop Hollow team. The setting up of the visiting team's goals was mainly due to the terrific play of Gil Miller.

Oak Brook The Winner Over Detroit C C C

Jack Cartuscicello

Captain Paul Butler's undefeated Oak Brook polo team handed Detroit C C C, the current National 20-goal and Open Champions, a 9 to 8 defeat in a handicap match polo game on July 4th.

The hotly contested match saw Oak Brook jump off to a 4 to 1 lead in the opening chukker with goals by Bert Beveridge, Cecil Smith, George Oliver and a one goal handicap. Nine-goaler Harold Barry scored one for C C C.

Captain Don Beveridge of Detroit's C C C opened the second chukker with a pair of solo dash goals while his team-mates held Oak Brook to one score by Cecil Smith.

The scoring was even in the third chukker as Bert Beveridge and Paul Butler scored on passes from George Oliver and Cecil Smith.

Bill Skidmore and Harold Barry scored for C C C.

George Oliver and Cecil Smith took over in the fourth with a goal each as the C C C team went scoreless.

Don Beveridge opened the fifth with a score for C C C as Bill Barry and Harold Barry held Oak Brook scoreless.

Bill Skidmore and Bill Barry each scored one in the sixth chukker and again Oak Brook failed to score. C C C was on the run to the goal but George Oliver stopped the play as the game ended.

the riders are particularly grateful, without whom we could never have achieved success—the grooms! I sincerely thank them for their honest work, team spirit, ambition, understanding and cooperation. As a coach I know how hard they work to keep our horses in sound condition and how much heart they put in this work. They deserve the highest respect and appreciation.

Now we are all "out to grass," the riders, horses and myself. The team is disbanded, but the memory of a job well done will be a pleasant one which I hope will not be soon forgotten, because: "To win and then rest in glory—can provoke a calamity!"

I remain Sir,

Yours sincerely,

Major A. M. Pieregorskoy,
Coach of the Canadian
Olympic Three Day Team

Junior Equitation

Dear Sir:

Two of your recent editorials have struck a particularly responsive chord with me and I should like to make a suggestion.

First, the lack of knowledge of, and interest in, the type of horsemanship that would start young riders along the road toward Olympic competition, particularly the well rounded Three Day Event.

Second, the proposal for more All-Equitation shows for both Junior and Adult riders.

The Chronicle has sounded the clarion call on these points and I believe it is also the proper medium for following through.

Could there not be prepared, for distribution to horse show committees all over the country, a simple little folder or booklet—it might be in the form of a special issue of The Chronicle for economy—to include:

1. Suggested programs of events for All-Equitation shows, designed to be adaptable for small regional or neighborhood shows as well as larger events.
2. Detailed instructions or recommendations for a class in any show, which might serve as a rudimentary start toward the Three Day type of competition.

As you of course know the committee responsible for organizing hundreds of shows are not horse people at all. They might be susceptible to such innovations if they knew how to handle them, but need some elementary instruction before daring to tackle it.

Yours sincerely,

Fred Sailor Harvey

Early Morning Ladies

Two owners who have recently appeared at Belmont Park to watch the early morning works are Mrs. Elizabeth Graham of the Maine Chance Stable (Elizabeth Arden) and Mrs. W. Thorne Kissell.

Bowie Has Done Something with Its Daily Racing Program

Right smack on the front is a picture of the 1955 revenue dollar received by Bowie, such dollar being carved up into several segments like a pie to show who gets what out of the money you spend there. It shows that by far the largest chunk of each dollar goes to the State of Maryland. The State gets 40.7 percent. The next largest slice is 22.1 percent which is for stakes and purses. The rest of the pieces are 16.6 percent for repairs, maintenance, rentals, and other racing costs, 9.2 percent for wages and salaries of employees, 3.9 percent for income taxes, 3.6 percent for depreciation, 3.5 percent for net income, and a princely 0.4 percent for salaries of officers. Underneath is a statement in heavy black type which says, "Since 1951 Bowie has spent more than $2,500,000 on improvements and repairs and nothing has been paid in dividends to stockholders".

By repeating this message every day to every race goer who buys a program, the track cannot help but get over the very important message that a large part of the racing revenue goes to the State, some to the Federal government, and that the stockholders aren't making any money. It points the finger of greed and avarice to the proper party and is much more constructive in educating the public in favor of racing than sitting back and waiting about taxes the way some of our operators do.

Coaching The Victorious British Three Day Team

(Editor's Note: The following paragraphs by Lt.-Col. W. E. Lyon are reprinted from the June 17th issue of "Sports and Country").

Frank Weldon was the obvious man to train the team for the Cross Country phase, as he had the necessary experience having won more events than anyone else in Britain. Realising that fitness in the man was every bit as necessary as in the horse, those in training for the event before the selection of the actual team were subjected to long periods of being lunged in a circle without reins or stirrups to improve their grip balance, which although not enjoyable certainly paid a dividend. Running was another aid to fitness.

Galloping and jumping is not all that is required of horse and rider. In the early days we paid too little attention to the schooling of the horse on the ground, in other words dressage, with the result that the riders and horses started the Cross Country phase with a severe handicap. Luckily Col. and Mrs. V. D. S. Williams nobly lent their time and valuable knowledge of the art, with the result that the riders started the second phase at Stockholm with an advantage instead of a handicap.

The third phase of the trials, namely show jumping, is just as important as the other two and again luck was on our side as Colonel Jack Talbot-Ponsonby was able to spare time from his work on the Grand Prix jumping aspirants, and there is no better trainer to be found anywhere.

Harry Warner Has Smart English Juvenile

Though there were no American victories at the Royal Ascot meeting, this deficiency was made good by Harry Warner's juvenile Grounded at the "Heath" meeting that followed on the Saturday.

WOODCHUCK HILL STABLE'S CHAMPTOWN

An article in this section recently gave the impression that Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Digney's hunter Champtown was listed under the Cold Creek Stable's show string. This is not the case as the working hunter champion belongs with the Digney's Woodchuck Hill Stable.

TOP RIDERS DESERT COMMUNIST TEAM

Communist Hungary's two best riders and their groom are now hiding in Vienna to avoid returning to their homeland, the Vienna afternoon-news-paper, Bild-Telegraf, reported recently. The newspaper said internationally-known riders Paul Kalley and Paul Bockshay were not with the six-man Hungarian riding team when it departed for Budapest last night. The riders came to Austria for an international tournament.

Bild-Telegraf said a groom named Markovich also remained behind. The newspaper said the Hungarian team managers searched "furiously" for the missing jockeys and the groom.

SIR MIKE WINS

Ben Helsel's Sir Mike, with Jim Fortenbaugh in the saddle, won all three jumping events in the all-Palomino show held at Quentin July 7 and 8 by the Pennsylvania Palomino Exhibitors association.

One big reason—he was the only jumper entered in the show, but they set up the entire courses in each of the classes just the same, just for Sir Mike. He also was named champion model gelding of the show.

RATLIFF SHOW STABLE

Extremely popular at the Florida shows were Mr. and Mrs. J. Paul Ratliff, Jr. who have a lovely place, right on the Gulf, in Pass Christian, Miss. Paul shows his new open champ. Hudson Bay and his colorful chestnut, Jack Daniels. Daughter Laurie rides Rose Umber and was awarded the Ojus hunter championship and Largo reserve honors on Beau Kid, a fine California-bred that unfortunately died of congested lungs at the end of the circuit. The Ratliffs recently toured the Kewick show with Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Motch. They were late bidders on the Coleswood working champion Sky's Impression, but came home with Little Sombrero, 1955 A. H. S. A. green working title holder from Jack Goodwins string. There are several other new horses in the Ratliff barn, purchased from Texas, Charlie Zimmerman, and a nice three year old filly by Knockdown that ran at The Fairgrounds oval last winter. Training chores have been turned over to Kirk Dutton, who will handle the horses this summer and on the Florida circuit next winter.—J. A.

HORSES DOWN, CAMELS UP

Farmers around the world are giving up horses and changing to tractors at a rate of nearly one-half million tractors per year, according to the International Federation of Agricultural Producers. Figures show that the number of tractors used by farmers, exclusive of Russia, rose by 400,000 in 1954, reaching a grand total of 7,100,000.

The increasing use of tractors on the farm has been accompanied by a fall in the world horse and mule population. Before the Second World War there were 74.7 million horses in the world. Today there are less than 59 million. But it's a different story with the camel population. Camels are used as pack and draft animals in many countries untouched by mechanization. The camel population is going up in Asia and Africa, rising from 7.8 million before the war to about ten million today.

The Mast was a black gelding foaled in 1947 and bred by Mrs. James E. Ryan whose husband trained the horse during his entire career. By Mrs. Marion duPont Scott's great steeplechase sire Annapolis (still hale and hearty at the age of 30) he was out of Claddagh which like her breeder and trainer, was of Irish parentage (*Aleazar—*Merdrin). After a moderate start at two and three The Mast began his successful racing career over jumps earning $10,950 at four; $36,050 at five; and $42,475 at six when he was declared Steeplechase Horse of the Year by the Triangle Publications and T. R. A. polls. After winning the Hitchcock Steeplechase Handicap at Aqueduct on June 27th, 1955 he fell at the first jump in the Georgetown a week later, receiving injuries which ended his racing career. His lifetime earnings totaled $103,400.

The Mast was one of the handsomest horses in training and had many admirers including the artist Jean Bowman who included him in a painting of the start of the Temple Gwathmey in 1952, which he won. This picture is now owned by Chris Wood, Jr., Field Director of United Hunts. She was therefore particularly pleased when Mrs. John R. H. Thouron, one of the great ladies of American racing and the owner of The Mast throughout his racing career, commissioned her to paint his portrait. The scene is one familiar to all steeplechase enthusiasts—the water jump at Delaware Park. It shows The Mast winning his first stakes race, The Tom Roby (June 18, 1951) over the big brush course where he was to triumph on many future occasions. Although he was later ridden by Paddy Smithwick, at this early stage of his career The Mast was assigned bottom weight of 133 pounds and was ridden by J. Snyder.

The picture combines in happy fashion three factors which have brought Miss Bowman international recognition and acclaim—brilliant handling of light the ability to convey action, and the three dimensional quality, realism, and close observation which constitute a master portrait painter.
